Viji Vasu's Retirement Announced from Yoga Raksanam

Mrs. Viji Vasu <sup>[1]</sup> has announced her retirement from Yoga Raksanam in Chennai, India after 20 years of service. She has also been an extremely popular teacher in YTI's Yoga Therapist Training Program over the past 12 years.

Fortunately, she will continue to teach online for Yoga Therapy International's Yoga Therapist Training <sup>[2]</sup> during Term 1 Online <sup>[3]</sup> this summer, introducing our students to the Bhagavad Gita during our first Yoga Philosophy course.

Viji became one of Maggie's Indian Yoga Masters in November, 2001, when she taught Maggie Pranayama and Meditation at the Krishnamacharya Yoga Mandiram (KYM). She has been a major influence on her development as both a person and Yoga Therapist. She continues to teach Maggie monthly online a range of topics, including the Bhagavad Gita, Vinyasa Karma, and Yoga Sutra Chanting.

Maggie pays her deepest respects to Mrs. Viji Vasu as her Yoga Teacher, Yoga Teacher Trainer and friend for 20 years. She looks forward to continuing transformation under her mentorship, and is so pleased that she will also influence Maggie's students with her radiant, inspiring presence in the years to come.
